

A public higher education institution...and a great place to work!

Did You Know?

Student worker positions are available with flexible hours.

VCU's most important asset is its diverse population of students, faculty, and staff.

With a rich history of teaching, research, public service, and patient care activities, VCU continues to achieve national rankings in many of its academic and research programs.

VCU Human Resources

P. O. Box 842511
Richmond, VA 23284-2511

Phone: (804) 827-1770

Web: <https://www.vcujobs.com/>

Virginia Commonwealth University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer.

We encourage women, minorities, and persons with disabilities to apply.

LAST REVISION: MAY 2007
[FEBRUARY 2007]

Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) is the single-largest employer in the Richmond area. VCU has a variety of student worker job opportunities available in the following areas:

- Information Technology
- Laboratory / Research
- Security / Police Officers
- Administrative / Support
- Accounting / Fiscal

Use our paperless job announcement and application system . . .

eJobs@VCU

Flexible search tools help you sort through job vacancies. And the cut-and-paste function makes the entire process of applying for a student worker position quick and easy!

- Go to <https://www.vcujobs.com/> to complete an on-line application.

Once on the job site, click on Search Positions and then click on Student Employment on the Job Category drop-down menu.

- Or complete an on-line application at one of the following HR locations on the Monroe Park Campus:

Lindsey House
600 West Franklin Street

Human Resources Building
104 North Belvidere Street

We welcome your interest in employment at VCU!